Dear Parents and Carers,

We started this week with an assembly that focussed on everybody associated with Highcliffe showing respect and good manners, and discussed what a difference this makes to the atmosphere in a school. It was explained that I would like anyone that attends or visits Highcliffe to recognise instantly how high our expectations are and that we are relentless in aiming for the highest possible standards. I have seen an impact already and am delighted with the increased number of children who have remembered to open doors; greet others with a smile; say please and thank you, show respect to those around them, and listen without interrupting adults. I am also extremely proud of those children who have never had to be reminded to do these things; they try so hard every day to set the right example and I hope they know that this does not go unnoticed! Thank you for your support, reinforcing the need to follow our Golden Rules, so that we can continue to enjoy an environment that promotes kindness, empathy and tolerance for all. Our vine of kindness is currently winding its way around my office walls and I'm sure it will continue to grow as the children add more paper leaves, describing a kind act they have seen. Thank you to the Y6 pupils, Mrs Neasham, Mrs Atkinson, Mrs Bell, Miss Schofield, Mrs Buckwell, Miss Peacock and Miss Wright, who are currently running the book fair. They're half way to their target of £400, after one day! And thank you to Mr. Parnaby and the Y5 team who hosted the Y5 Carlton trip meeting and to the parents who attended. It looks great fun! Have a lovely weekend.

Nicky King (Headteacher)

Harvest Festival tickets will be issued early next week.

We have a winner!

Andrew Usher, Y6, has won a national prize after entering the Espresso, 'Make Your World Bigger' competition over the summer!

He was one of just ten winners and we are thrilled for him! His huge box of prizes arrived this week, and included: a t-shirt, games, DVDs, books and a cuddly toy! Didn't he do well?! He also won money for staff training!

Congratulations, Andrew!
