Dear Parents/Carers,

The children have been rehearsing for their Harvest Festival performances for the past couple of weeks and are sounding beautiful! We are very much looking forward to welcoming you to come and watch us if you are able to on the following dates:

Tuesday 1st October: Year 1—Year 6,
at St. Nicholas Church from 10am.

Thursday 10th October: Nursery and Reception, at Highcliffe, from 9.30am (KS1 doors, please)

Drop off arrangements:

Please note that our Field Gates open at 8.35am and close at 8.55am, and our side gates open at 8.37am and close at 8.50am each day, including those like the ones we have had most of this week!

Unfortunately, we cannot open them any earlier than this, even when it is raining or freezing.

On days like this, we would recommend arriving as close to your child's starting time as possible, so that you are not having to wait longer in horrible conditions.

We will of course invite the children to come inside before school starts on very wet, windy or snowy days, but the children will still need appropriately warm and waterproof coats please, as we do not have the staffing capacity to do this each day through the autumn/winter, and they will be needed at play time and lunch time. Thank you.

We are very proud to announce this week's Pupils of the Week. Well done everyone!
