Dear Parents/Carers,

Our super, spooky Halloween discos, organised and run brilliantly as usual by our Highcliffe Friends and staff, were a huge success last night! Thank you to everyone who supported them, and well done to the children who made such an effort with their costumes. The seven foot dinosaur doing the Macarena was a definite highlight! I would like to end the week by thanking all the staff at Highcliffe for always working so hard, and helping the children and each other to reach the end of a long half term so successfully! Thanks also to the children for trying so hard to do their best and show kindness to each other every day—we are very lucky! The support we have had from you has also been hugely appreciated—thank you! I hope everyone can enjoy the week away from school and we will look forward to seeing everyone soon.

Book and Breakfast Bonanza:

The week beginning November 4th is Children's Book Week; we'll be marking this in a number of ways, including our Book and Breakfast Bonanza, on Thursday 7th November. We'd like to invite you to join us to read a story with your children, from 8.15am. Please book a place via ParentPay when we return after half term. Thank you.

Children In Need Cake Sale: As you will have seen on our recent flyers, we will be holding a cake sale to raise money for Children In Need, on Friday 14th November. We would really appreciate cake donations that day please. Thank you. Payment for the cakes can be made closer to the time via ParentPay. The children are invited to wear non-uniform that day if they would like to.

We are very proud to announce this week's
