Dear Parents/Carers,

Thank you to the children for the effort they have made this week on their return after half term! It was great to see everybody back and ready to learn. We are all looking forward to a very busy time between now and Christmas—please see our diary dates on the next page for further details. Thank you.

Remembrance Sunday: It is not Highcliffe's turn to walk in this year's Remembrance Parade, but I am sure our children representing organisations including Cubs and Brownies will be a credit to our school.

Safeguarding at Highcliffe: We are hosting a separation anxiety workshop next Friday. Please see attached invite for further information.

We are very proud to announce this week's Pupils of the Week. Well done everyone!

Book and Breakfast Bonanza:

I would like to say a huge thank you to Miss Appleby for organising our Breakfast Bonanza as part of Children's book week yesterday! Thanks also to the staff who volunteered as well to attend and help out—your time was very much appreciated! It was wonderful to welcome those of you who came and we hope you enjoyed the time reading together with your children.

World Diabetes Awareness Day:

We have two children and one member of staff at Highcliffe who have diabetes so it is really important for us to raise awareness on Thursday 14th November. We have asked everyone to paint at least one nail blue to in order to do this, please.

Children In Need Cake Sale/Non Uniform:

A reminder that we will be holding a cake sale to raise money for Children In Need, on Friday 15th November. We would really appreciate cake donations that day please. Thank you! Payment for the cakes can be made from Monday. The children are invited to wear non-uniform that day if they would like to. This can include fancy dress; pjs; their favourite outfit; spots for Pudsey etc., or anything else they fancy (no heels, crop tops or earrings bigger than studs, please)!
